Men spotted wearing Thongs in Winter!

Guys Guys Guys, What's going on, we know we all love wearing thongs, for that relaxed feeling, but don't you think now that its a cold winter that your feet deserve the same warmth as your upper bodies?

Many of us Guys, wait to the very last minute to buy anything, and shoes is definitely an example of this. I have seen so many guys with cold feet walking around Bondi, Coogee and Paddo its not funny!:laugh:

Often the guys who are wearing leather shoes, are wearing old shoes they bought 3 years ago that either have holes on the bottom, or have had more hits than Elvis. Time to get some nice new pair of leather shoes I say! If you haven't got any at the moment, go for something simple that can be worn up with a suit or some jeans. If you are looking for something that is directional, get the patent variety! They look way cool with both jeans and suits.

There are also heaps of cool boots out there, that have allot of street cred and look great with Jeans. Loafers and Lace Ups are also very much in, the light brandy colour loafer looks great with light jeans. So come on guys, get with it, keep those cold feet warm this winter http://bondibeachbabes.com.au/images/fbfiles/images/Man\_in\_Thongs.jpg

Ha, Ha, Ha, that is true. We guys love our thongs, and cannot seem to get out of the thongs, baggy jeans look. But I agree with you, we got to catch up to the women in fashion. Women look great with there winter boots and their jeans. Guys also tend to wear sneakers to often as well with their jeans. I think wearing sneakers is cool if your young, but being a grown up, and an adult, some of these guys should be wearing leather shoes.:woohoo:

Yeah, Never forget the Borat Thong, that was a classic. At Bondi I saw these group of guys with a guy who was wearing the Borat look-alike green underwear, I think it was his bucks night. He sure got allot of attention, and all his mates were loving his embarassment!:P

P.S Do you notice that thongs have a tendency to self destruct after one summer, I guess thats why they are so cheap!

No! Not the Borat thong. Although I did think I was clicking on something where I'd be seeing some guys in sexy mens underwear.

And yeah, what's with you men? Take your socks of when you wear your sandals. And don't complain that your wear socks so your feet don't get cold. If your feet are getting cold then wear shows dammit. And no, not those ugly white sneakers, don't you have any nice shoes? :)

Yes thongs tend to self destruct, although I do have some unusual thongs called Suesmi, or something like that, they have this rubber peg for the toes. They cost me 25 bucks, but I ahve had them for two summers, and they are going strong. I havent had a Havana's thongs, how are?:woohoo:
